PUTERS SIDE TOLD

"I laid two $1000 bills on the table. Mitchell said that it was too much. I was desperate over a desire to get the patents through and told him to take the money, go over and see Hermann and have him take the claims up for consideration, and under no circumstances to allow them to go back to the local office. I knew that as a United States senator, Mitchell would have a lot of influence with the land office and I was willing to pay that amount to have the patents issue.
"I knew the special agents had made a report on the lands, but of the nature of the report I had no means of knowing and I was at a loss to know why Hermann threw the claims out. I do not know to this day why he did it, but when he told me the last time I was before him that the lands were down and out and that they would have to go back to the Oregon City office, I went to see Mitchell at once. All I know about Hermann is that after the money was paid to Mitchell and I had given him that inducement to make a good hard talk Hermann changed his mind. Why he did it, I don't know, and wouldn't presume to say."
